GRIT.

What makes the troubles of every day
Break like bubbles and fade away?
Grit.

What wins victory from defeat?
What never knows when it is beat?
Grit.

What have men honored since time began?
What makes a man want to be a man?
Grit.

Brother, take heart when ill winds blow,
Work on, hope on, be a man and show
Your Grit.

Yesterday afternoon while visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Loele Naden in Lee street a little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Mart Crowell was bitten on the leg by a small dog belonging to the former. Although a pet, Mr. Naden had the dog killed forthwith. The skin on the child's limb was not broken and nothing serious from the bite is anticipated.

Friday Uncle Dick Break roended out four years faithful service as watchman at the Commerce street C. and O. railroad crossing. During that time he has lost only one day. Besides being diligent and faithful in the discharge of his onerous duties, he is much liked by the residents of the neighborhood on account of his kindly disposition and watchful care of children.

Mr. W. B. Dawson returned Friday from New Mexico. While there he located and registered 160 acres of Government land in Roosevelt county. His brother Charley, formerly a citizen of Maysville, has been a resident ever since the opening of the land by the Government to settlers, and is now one of the well-to-do farmers of that growing country. During his journey Mr. Dawson traveled over 4,000 miles.

Mrs. Alec Calhoun of Market street is in receipt of a letter from her son, Frank, which gives rather a glowing account of the Jamestown Exposition, and altogether different from what is being heralded abroad setting forth its incompleteness. He speaks of much already to be seen and states by the middle of June or July let the great world's show will be in perfect running order, and worth the time and money of any one to pay it a visit.

Historic Lexington echoed with the old-time rebel yell on Wednesday when the Chesapeake and Ohio train passed through the city bearing the remnant of the hardy Texas Rangers to the Confederate reunion at Richmond, Virginia. There were over a hundred of these valiant old warriors, and as they filed down from the cars and out upon the platform for a breath of Bluegrass air and a glimpse of its capitol, they looked every inch the heroes whose deeds of valor have thrilled the hearts of every son of the South since they struggled for the rights of the Lost Star State, says The Leader.

ONE AARON KOHN, Louisville's worse than criminal lawyer, might take a profitable squint at ABE HUMMEL's finish and do a little reformation on the side before it is everlastingly too late. The Penitentiary is yawning for AARON.

IN the last ten years the foreign sales of American manufactures have increased from $258,000,000 annually to $700,000,000. That is a gain of $442,000,000 for ten years. It sizes up remarkably well with the gain of $105,000,000 in the first 100 years of American manufacturing activity.

POSSIBLY the changes of the next two or three years may result in over-production, but with our population increasing at a rate that calls for the product of 500,000 additional bales of cotton every year, and with domestic mills supplying only 55 to 60 per cent. of the fine goods actually consumed in this country, it would seem as if the break were some years ahead.

THE Kentucky Republican State Convention will meet in Louisville two weeks from next Wednesday. There is every indication that Hon. A. E. WILLSON will receive the nomination for Governor by acclamation. The opposition to WILLSON only exists in a few spots, and his nomination is now conceded by any one who can see through an open window. Senator Cox of Maysville will make good material for Lieutenant-Governor or Auditor. He prefers the latter place, and if nominated would add great strength to the Willson ticket.

THE bulletin of the League of American Municipalities for the past month calls attention to the fact that Covington is without poolrooms for the first time in twenty-six years, and compliments Mayor BEACH on the fact.

GEN. STEPHEN D. LEE, Commander-in-Chief of the Confederate Veterans, has been invited to deliver the address at Arlington on Confederate Decoration Day, June 9th. Gen. LEE was in Richmond at the Confederate reunion the last two days of last month.

COL. HENRY T. DUNCAN, Democratic ex-Mayor of Lexington, is building a fire under the incompetents who have been ruling and ruining Lexington with the usual Democratic gang influence. If what Mr. DUNCAN says is true, the Bluegrass metropolis is going the wrong road to progress and prosperity.

THE veterans who fought in the Union cause are rapidly passing away, and it is estimated that "taps" is sounded for 82 of the old boys in blue every day, or 30,000 a year. It is, indeed, getting to be a "thin blue line." By the year 1950 there may be a dozen of the old boys left, but it is very doubtful. Thirty thousand old soldiers marching slowly, but surely, across the dark river of Death is a spectacle appalling, indeed, to the imagination.

IT SAVED HIS LIFE.

Leo Littrichstein, appearing in "Before and After," met a well-known musician at a dinner not long ago. "I, too, am a musician in a small way," Littrichstein said. "My musical talent was once the means of saving my life."

"How was that?" the musician asked.

"There was a great flood in our town in my boyhood," replied Littrichstein. "When the water struck our house my father got on a bed and floated with the stream until rescued."

"And you?" said the musician.

"Well," said Littrichstein, "I accompanied him on the piano."

BAD BREATH

"For months I had great trouble with my stomach and used all kinds of medicines. My tongue has been actually as green as grass. My breath has been bad. Two weeks ago a friend recommended Cascarets and after taking them I can willingly and cheerfully say that they have entirely cured me. I therefore let you know that I shall recommend them to any one suffering from such troubles."

Martha Johnson whose weight was 511 pounds died Friday at Louisville of heart failure. She was 62 years old and believed to be the largest person in Kentucky. The undertaker who was called said the fluid sufficient to embalm six ordinary persons was necessary in preparing the woman's body for burial. Her casket is six feet long, three feet wide and twenty-one inches deep and twelve stout Negroes were selected as pall bearers.

Winter & Everett in the Grain
Business

The old reliable firm of Winter & Everett, dealers in all kinds of grain, seeds, etc. was mutually dissolved last Saturday when Mr. Thomas J. Winter sold his interest to Mr. Charles F. Lloyd and retired from the firm and from all active business in the future. Mr. Winter has been identified with the business interest of Maysville for twenty years, his first connection being with the firm of O. H. P. Thomas & Co., dealers in tobacco and grain, and each year he has laid up some money to the good so that now at the age of about seventy years, he retires with a handsome competency and what is even better than money, with the good will of all who know him.

The new firm will be styled John C. Everett & Co., and we wish for it a continuance of the success achieved by Winter & Everett. The new firm will wind up all unfinished business of the old firm.

Correspondents are kindly requested to boil down all items, unless of unusual interest.

The National Guard of Kentucky, will attend the Jamestown Exposition and have agreed to accept half pay in order to make the trip.

Son Bros. great circus is with us today at the Ball Park in the Sixth Ward and a great exhibition is expected. Maysville is circus hungry and a big crowd will be on hand today and tonight.

The musical recital to be given by the pupils of Hayswood Seminary this evening at the First Presbyterian Church will begin promptly at 8 o'clock. The program has been carefully arranged and will be especially enjoyable.

The State Missionary Convention will be held this year September 16th at Latonia. Less than eight years ago there was no Christian Church at Latonia, and a mission was established by the State Board in that city, and the membership has increased to 600 people.

Mrs. John Scholl has returned from a visit to her brother, Dr. Lewis F. Rehnert, at El Paso, Texas, who has been in Arizona and Texas for the past two years for the benefit of his health. She reports that her brother is in a precarious condition and that he is confined to his bed.

Anent the meeting of the Confederate Veterans at Richmond, Va., the correspondent of The Courier Journal says: "Among the Kentuckians at headquarters there are many of John Morgan's men, 'Morgan's Raiders,' they were called in war times, and if braver men ever galloped over the earth the historians have failed to record their deeds. The hedge these Kentucky men wear has upon it a picture of the famous cavalryman. Private Dan Perrine of Maysville is one of the fine-looking old boys at Kentucky headquarters. He, too, followed Morgan in that wonderful raid in the heart of the enemy's country."
